

The Theological Institute of Saint John's Seminary Bioethics Speakers Series

May 9, 2019, 10:00 – 12:00
Models of Ethical Analysis and Ethical Discernment:
Having Frameworks for Ethical Decision Making

M.C. Sullivan - JD, MTS, RN - Chief Healthcare Ethicist for the Archdiocese of Boston and Director, Initiative on Palliative Care & Advanced Care Planning

May 16, 2019, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.
The Gospel of Life: The Wisdom of Evangelium Vitae for Building a Culture of Life Today

Rev. Ryan W. Connors - Professor of Moral Theology at SJS, Brighton, MA

Mary Jo Kriz, Practitioner - Project Rachel

May 22, 2019, 10:00 – 12:00
The Wisdom of Catholic Teaching on Euthanasia and Physician-assisted Suicide

Dr. Christopher Klofft - Assumption College, Worcester, MA

Diane McCarthy, Parish Education Coordinator, Initiative for Palliative Care & Advance Care Planning

Lori Hayes, RN - Faith Community Nurse at the Parish of the Transfiguration, Wilmington, MA

The new Bioethics Speaker Series is $25 each day. You may register for one day or all three days at www.sjs.edu.

The Series will be conducted at 66 Brooks Drive, Braintree, MA 02184.

We would like to thank the Catholic Health Foundation for the funding support.